

MERVILLE BEACH MAURITIUS

Updated: 20.10.08 J.P

Found in the north of the island, on the coastal road leading to Grand Bay, the latter is one of the trendiest places of Mauritius, often referred to as the local Riviera. This previously village of fisherman spreads itself along a beautiful beach which immediately attracts tourists, making this site a craze for restaurants and fashion shops. The advantage of the Merville Beach is that it is found walking distance from the city, offering its residents an easy and quick access to the place. Merville Beach is a superior hotel which has access to a long white pristine sandy beach and also possesses a charming tropical garden. It is interesting to note that many of Merville Beach's guests are regulars; the hotel's clients know that this part of the region is well known for its all year round nice climate. Merville Beach has been able to preserve this authentic and Creole touch that has definitely contributed to its success. The friendly atmosphere that prevails matches the natural decor of the hotel: nice thatched roofs, 'Ravenal', 'Raphia', basaltic Rock, and Bamboo. The artfully decorated living room, offers a wonderful view over the lagoon.
